What Happens If We Don't Wait

It can be very hard to wait. If we don't keep safe hands while we wait, it can make others feel upset or get us into trouble.

You Didn't Wait

Your dad gave your brother a new action figure. You take it from him.

Your teacher says you can't use the iPad until later, but you take it now.

Your friend is playing too slowly so you take the game controller away and say, "I can go faster."

Your friend is talking to another person, and you interrupt them.

Your friend isn't listening to you so you hit him to get his attention.

What Could Happen

Your friend won't want to play with you.

Your friend will feel annoyed.

Your friend won't want to talk to you.

Your dad will punish you, and your brother will feel angry at you.

You will lose iPad privileges.
