

Pixar's LOU Extension Activity

Giving vs. Taking

How do Lou and J.J. find happiness in the beginning of the movie? Are they the same or different?

Why did Lou make J.J. give the kids their toys back instead of returning them to Lou?

How do the other children feel when J.J. takes their things?

What kind of thoughts do you think they might have about J.J.?

Do you think J.J.'s thoughts and feelings changed at the end of the movie? How?
